LIBRARY NEWS

Shelton State will celebrate National Library Week April 14-18. Special posters and bulletin boards in the library at the junior college will reflect this year's theme - "The Library - AWESOME." Book marks will be available at the circulation desk.

The annual library evaluation will be conducted at the end of April or the first of May. Classes will be selected at random for student responses; all faculty will receive evaluation forms in their mailboxes.

Students not included in the randomly selected classes may complete a form at the circulation desk. Specific dates of the evaluation will be announced later.

HONORS NIGHT INFORMATION

Departments and divisions of the college must submit the names of the awards to be given during Shelton State's Honors Night to the committee by April 17. Names of the recipients for these awards must be submitted by April 24. Members of the Honors Night committee are division chairs or department directors. Brenda Ryan is chairperson of the committee.

SHELTON STUDENTS RECEIVE UA SCHOLARSHIPS

THREE STUDENTS AT THE JUNIOR COLLEGE DIVISION OF SHELTON STATE HAVE BEEN NOTIFIED THAT THEY HAVE RECEIVED SCHOLARTSHIPS TO THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA FOR THE 1986-76 SCHOOL YEAR.

Rhonda Brieyark and Dana Kuykendall will receive Alumni Honors Scholarships and Sandra Anderson has been awarded a Junior College Honors Scholarship. Sara Cannon, also a student at the college, has been notified that she is an alternate in the scholarship selection.

UMPHREY WINS BIG

Dr. Tom Umphrey, executive vice president for Shelton State Community College, won with a four-to-one margin over his opponent during the recent election for vice president of the Alabama Junior and Community College Association.

The election which was held during the annual conferene in Mobile last week was the final meeting scheduled on the conference agenda. Dr. Umphrey received a great deal of support not only from Shelton State personnel but from employees of Jeff State and many of the other two year schools in the state, according to campaign manager Dr. Dave Freeman.

As vice president Dr. Umphrey will automatically succeed to the presidency of the organization the following year.
